Message: Tapping Into Strength

Hymns: "Strength, Healing, and Grace"

I LOOK TO YOU IN EVERY NEED

1 I look to you in every need,
and never look in vain;
I feel your strong and tender love,
and all is well again:
The thought of you is mightier far than sin and pain and sorrow are.

2 Discouraged in the work of life,
disheartened by its load,
Shamed by its failures or its fears,
I sink beside the road;
But let me only think of you and all my strength returns anew.

3 Serene and calm, you circle me,
my restlessness to still;
Around me flows your quickening life,
to nerve my faltering will:
Your presence fills my solitude;
your providence turns all to good.

*Words by Samuel Longfellow*, 1864*

*Music by Frederic Bullard**, 1902*

**Samuel Longfellow was from Portland, Maine.*

He had a famous brother, Henry

\*Bullard's hymn tune (called "Longfellow") hasn't appeared in a published hymnal in over one hundred years.*

HERE, SAVIOR, IN THIS QUIET PLACE

1 Here, Savior, in this quiet place,
Where anyone may kneel,
I also come to ask for grace,
believing you can heal.

2 If pain of body, stress of mind,
Destroys my inward peace,
In prayer for others may I find the secret of release.

3 If self upon its sickness feeds
and turns my life to gall,
Let me not brood upon my needs,
but simply tell you all.

4 You never said 'You ask too much'
to any troubled soul.
I long to feel your healing touch-will you not make me whole?

Words by Fred Pratt Green, 1974

Music by William Jones, 1879

AMAZING GRACE

1 Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
was blind, but now I see.

2 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
and grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
and grace will lead me home.

Words by John Newton, 1779

and matching" lyrics and songs last week, you can do it again with "Here Savior, in This Quiet Place" and "Amazing Grace!"*
