

Acts 2:1-8

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

<sup>2</sup> When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup> And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup> And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. <sup>4</sup> And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.

<sup>5</sup> Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. <sup>6</sup> And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup> And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? <sup>8</sup> And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?

Acts 2:12-15

<sup>12</sup> And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" <sup>13</sup> But others mocking said, "They are filled with new wine."

Peter Addresses the Crowd

<sup>14</sup> But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. <sup>15</sup> For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, since it is only the third hour of the day;
